

Gem 42, is making every effort to source wines from some of the most sought after producers selecting vineyard and method of wine making also; Biodynamic, Organic and Natural wines.

Our aim is to provide the very highest standard of wine service, encouraging guests to try something a little more unusual and keeping a real focus on pairing wines with the dishes on the menu, by creating a wine list championing also local Welsh and English wines, independent growers, organic, biodynamic and natural producers and lesser-known grape varieties.

To help find them in our wine list we have marked;
ORGANIC . BIODYNAMIC . NATURAL.

As might be expected, they can be positively different from 'conventional' wine in appearance and taste: do ask before ordering to know more.

b.44 Pinot Noir, Poggiobello, DOC. 2014, Italy. 48

Aromas of red fruits such as wild strawberry and black cherry combined with spice. The palate follows the same theme and shows red cherries, blueberry, hints of liquorice and a long smooth finish.

b. 125c. Côte-Du Rhone, E Guigal, 2015, France 38

Lively bouquet, of wood and black fruits, with vanilla and cinnamon notes. A great garnet red with a distinct dark colour in the glass.
